

User B requests a signature validity check over file uploaded by User A

Node B

Node B retrieves file signature and metadata

Node B cryptographically checks the signature over the retrieved information

Node B returns the result of the signature check to User B

User B gets notified of the check result

